1. Invitation message

In order for SoftServe to assess the capabilities of cooperation with your company, you need to go through the registration and verification procedure. In your email you will receive the letter from Coupa Supplier Portal with details. Inside will be a brief description of what to do and a link to the e-questionnaire.

Example of the letter

!Example of the letter
For your convenience, there are two options:

The first is to fill in the application form without registration and creating a profile on the Coupa supplier portal. In this case, the system will open an electronic questionnaire, in which you need to enter the necessary information.

The second is to join the Coupa Supplier Portal (CSP). This portal is completely free for suppliers. In this case, you will be able to:

- Create your profile and use various options (for example, receive orders, maintain catalogs of your products, send invoices, track the payment for the orders, etc.).
- After registration, you will have access to a database of customers who also use the Coupa worldwide. You will be able to send requests for cooperation, and all your products or services will be available for all users of the portal.

2. Respond Without Joining

After you press Respond Without Joining, the system automatically opens a window with an additional question.

Choose your country from the dropdown. If you cannot find your country in the list, choose the International option.

The system automatically opens the window with the appropriate questionnaire.
Example of the questionnaire

Field “Company name” is auto filled by default, but you are able to make changes if needed.

Field “Primary address” here you need to provide the legal registration address of your company. Please, pay attention to the mandatory fields, they are marked with a red star.
